MIT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

These Terms and Conditions are applicable to all students studying at Kaplan Higher Education Pty Ltd 85 124 217 670 trading as Murdoch Institute of Technology CRICOS 03127E (PRV12030) (MIT).

1.1. Policies and procedures: All MIT students are subject to the policies and procedures that are published on our website (www.murdochinstitute.wa.edu.au/policies/) and in the MIT student handbook, including those dealing with student misconduct, assessment, progression, enrolment deferral and cancellation, complaints and appeals, and refund. Students must review these policies and procedures and ensure they understand and comply with the most up to date version of our policies and procedures at all times.

1.2. Course absences and start dates: All students are expected to attend class from the first day of their course. No refund is given for time missed due to arrivals after the published course commencement date, vacations, absences or public holidays. Such periods of absence will not be replaced by a free extension of any course. No refunds or substitutions will be made for classes missed due to exams, excursions, first day orientation or other obligations that fall outside the normal teaching schedule. Classes are not held, and many campus facilities are closed, on public holidays. All published course dates start on a Monday, but if the Monday is a public holiday, the course start will fall on the Tuesday.

1.3. Campus facilities: Students are advised that campus facilities may not be available during study breaks. Details are available from the Student Services Team or Reception staff at MIT.

1.4. Placement: MIT may place a student into the most appropriate class and postpone subjects to the following study period where there is an insufficient number of students for that class or subject.

1.5. Course changes: MIT may change course dates, course curricula, tutors and programs at any time at its discretion. However, in cases where the course is rescheduled before the first class and the new date is unacceptable to the student all unused tuition fees will be refunded. The deadline for any course or unit transfers is the end of week 1 in each study period.

1.6. Tuition fees: The student or student's family agrees to pay the annual tuition fee and any additional charges in accordance with the fee schedule for the current year published on our website www.murdochinstitute.wa.edu.au. Any refund is made in accordance with the MIT Refund Policy. Tuition fees include lessons, orientation, use of computer facilities and internet quota, placement and progress testing and an MIT certificate upon successful completion of the course. MIT may withhold the granting of a certificate from a student if the student's tuition fees or any other fees remain outstanding.

1.7. Late enrolment: New students in all programs (except for English for Academic Purposes (EAP)) must finalise their class enrolments before the end of week 1 in each study period, and must commence their studies before the end of week 2 in each study period. New students in the EAP program must finalise their class enrolments and commence their studies before the end of week 1 in each study. Continuing students in the MUPC and Diploma programs must attend their first day of scheduled class as shown on their final timetable in each study period otherwise a late enrolment fee of AUD 250 will apply, and must enrol in their final choice of units by the end of week 1 in each study period. No enrolments will be accepted after the end of week 1 in each study period for the EAP program or after the end of week 2 in each study period for any other program. Students that miss their enrolment deadline must defer their studies to the next study period which, for international students, may affect their student visa.

1.8. Books and learning materials: Students may be required to purchase textbooks, workbooks, stationery, software and other required learning materials at an additional cost. Details of any additional costs are in the MIT student handbook or the relevant course or unit outline.

1.9. Additional services: Any additional services (such as travel, telephone costs, excursions, medical costs, special diet, non-MIT exams and enrolment amendments) are not included in any fees unless specifically stated on a valid invoice from MIT. Students wishing to arrange homestay accommodation and/or airport transfer should contact Australian Homestay Network at www.homestaynetwork.org/mit-students. Enquiries about on-campus accommodation should be directed to Murdoch University Village at www.murdochuv.com.au.

1.10. Privacy: Personal information collected by MIT, which identifies a student and information regarding a student's course progress and attendance, may be shared by MIT with the Australian government, or State and Territory governments, and their designated authorities, the Tuition Protection Service, the agent that recruited the student (unless specifically excluded), the students' parents (if under 18), MIT staff and contractors, Murdoch University and related body corporates of MIT and their staff and contractors. This information may include personal and contact details, course enrolment details and changes, course results, and the circumstance of any suspected breach by the student of a visa condition. MIT's Privacy Policy outlines further information about the handling of personal information by MIT (at www.murdochinstitute.wa.edu.au/policies/). You may contact our Privacy Officer at privacy@kaplan.edu.au if you have any enquiries about your personal information or if you wish to make a privacy complaint.

1.11. Medical costs: MIT is hereby authorised to seek medical treatment should MIT or a staff member acting on its behalf consider such action necessary for a student. The student agrees to indemnify MIT for any expense, loss, damage or liability whatsoever suffered or incurred as a result of authorising and arranging such emergency medical treatment.

1.12. Photography, filming and sound recording: MIT or its representatives may arrange to photograph or shoot video footage of students for promotional or marketing purposes, in print and/or online, at any time. Any student who does not wish to participate should advise MIT or its representative at the time of booking and state at the time of the photographing or video shooting that they do not wish to participate.

2. MURDOCH UNIVERSITY FEES

2.1. Murdoch University course fees will depend on the student's choice of undergraduate degree course and point of entry. Further information is available on the Murdoch University website: www.murdoch.edu.au.

3. DEFERRAL/INTERMISSION, SUSPENSION AND CANCELLATION OF ENROLMENT

3.1. A student may apply to defer/intermit their studies on the grounds of compelling or compassionate circumstances such as their own ill health or that of a very close relative. All applications for deferral/intermission from a course of study must be made in writing by using the relevant form available from MIT. Students should refer to the MIT Changes to Enrolment Policy (available at www.murdochinstitute.wa.edu.au/policies/) for details of the circumstances in which their enrolment may be deferred, suspended or cancelled, before submitting their application.

3.2. A student's enrolment at MIT may be suspended or cancelled in accordance with the MIT Changes to Enrolment Policy (available at www.murdochinstitute.wa.edu.au/policies/), including on grounds of misbehaviour by the student, the student's failure to pay amount(s) owing to MIT in accordance with this agreement or a breach of course attendance and progression by the student.

4. REFUNDS

4.1. MIT's Refund Policy is available at www.murdochinstitute.wa.edu.au/policies/. All students must read the Refund Policy before accepting an offer of admission from MIT. Students requesting a refund are required to do so in accordance with the MIT Refund Policy. Approved refunds are paid in Australian dollars into the bank account nominated on the refund form. All refund requests will be responded to in writing and approved refunds will be paid within 14 days of written notification by MIT. For under 18 students, refunds will be paid to the parent(s) or guardian(s) of the student unless MIT receives written approval from a parent or guardian consenting for the refund to be paid directly to the student. Tuition fees are not transferable to other students.

4.2. In all cases, the enrolment application, medical insurance, courier, Murdoch University deposit and any other service fees (such as the accommodation placement fee) are non-refundable.

4.3. Students that are accessing a FEE HELP loan from the Australian government, who wish to withdraw from their course, must do so in writing before the published census date for the course. Failure to do so may result in the student incurring a debt to the Australian government. Students should note that the census date for each Diploma program at MIT is 3 weeks from the published course start date. Further information is available at <http://studyassist.gov.au/sites/StudyAssist/>.

Course enrolment fees will not be refunded if a student withdraws from the subject after the census date for the trimester, except under the following circumstances:

- where the student's application for enrolment is declined by the school;
 - the student is prevented from studying a module or subject for reason(s) beyond the student's control, including acts of government authorities, civil strikes and riots; or
 - the school cancels a subject in which the student has enrolled or where the commencement of the subject or module is postponed for more than two weeks.
- 4.4. In the event a student wishes to withdraw from their course, the following fees apply both to international students and students who do not have access to FEE-HELP:

Notification Period	Cancellation Fee
More than 10 weeks before course commencement date:	AUD 1,000
More than 4 weeks and up to 10 weeks before course commencement date: 40% of the course fees	40% of the course fees
Less than 4 weeks before course commencement date:	70% of the course fees
Less than 2 weeks after course commencement date:	80% of the course fees
More than 2 weeks after course commencement date:	100% of the course fees

*For the purposes of the Refund Policy, a course is defined as one trimester of study, or for English programs, 24 weeks of study.

4.5. Where a student visa application is refused before the published course commencement date, all unspent tuition fees will be refunded less an administration fee of AUD 240. Where a student visa application is refused after the published course commencement date, or a student with a visa is refused a release letter from their previous provider, all unspent tuition fees will be refunded. Unused tuition fees will be calculated from the date of written notification received by MIT.

No refund is due in the following cases:

- Visa application rejected by the Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) due to submission of fraudulent documents; or
- Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE) is cancelled due to non-compliance with visa requirements.

In all cases, the student must provide satisfactory evidence to MIT of their visa or release letter refusal (as applicable) before MIT will provide the refund amount.

4.6. If MIT cancels a student's enrolment caused by a breach of student visa conditions or by student misconduct (including any serious breach of these Terms and Conditions or the MIT policies and procedures by the student), then no refund of tuition fees will apply.

4.7. Protection of student fees: In the unlikely event that MIT is unable to deliver a course in full, students will be offered a refund of all unspent tuition fees. This refund will be paid within 14 days of the day on which the course ceased being provided. Alternatively, students may be offered enrolment in an alternative course at no extra cost. Students have the right to choose whether they would prefer a refund of unspent tuition fees or to accept a place in another course. If they choose placement in another course, students will need to sign documentation to indicate their acceptance of the placement. In the unlikely event that MIT is unable to provide a refund or place a student in an alternative course, the Tuition Protection Service (TPS) will assist the student in finding an alternative course or to get a refund if a suitable alternative is not found. Further information concerning the TPS can be found at www.tps.gov.au.

4.8. Students that cancel their enrolment may not be eligible to receive a certificate for a partially completed course from MIT.

5. INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

5.1. Visa information: It is the responsibility of the student to arrange all applicable travel permits or visas and to have a valid passport for the whole period of study. The student may be asked to make payment for the first study period before any of their visa documentation is issued. Visa application forms (Confirmation of Enrolment) may not be issued by MIT until payment for the first study period has been received and the enrolment agreement has been signed and returned to MIT by the student. The enrolment agreement includes reference to the pre-arrival information and grievance procedures information and can be found on our website www.murdochinstitute.wa.edu.au.

5.2. Student visa obligations: Student visa holders are required to maintain compliance with all applicable visa conditions including providing MIT with a current residential address and telephone number at all times, maintaining satisfactory academic progress and attending a minimum of 80% of their course. Students that fail to commence their enrolled course or fail to meet the requirement for 80% attendance or satisfactory academic progress will be reported to the Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP). Any school-aged dependants accompanying overseas students to Australia will be required to pay full fees if they are enrolled in either a government or non-government school.

5.3. Health insurance: Health insurance is compulsory for student visa holders and their accompanying family members. Students are required to provide proof of health insurance at the time of their enrolment. Students will not receive a Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE) until they have obtained satisfactory health insurance for the length of their visa. The Australian government requires all students on student visas to join the Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) scheme, a health insurance plan for overseas students in Australia. Students must ensure that payment is made for compulsory OSHC before their visa is issued and that the insurance provides adequate coverage for the duration of the student's visa.

5.4. Codes of practice: MIT abides by the National Code of Practice for Registration Authorities and Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018 (the National Code) and the Educational Services for Overseas Students Act 2000 (Cth) (ESOS Act). Further information about the National Code can be obtained at internationaleducation.gov.au/Regulatory-Information/.

5.5. Living expenses: Migration regulations in Australia require international students to show evidence that they can contribute to the cost of living and studying in Australia. Further information can be obtained at www.studyinaustralia.gov.au/en/Study-Costs or www.border.gov.au/.

6. CONSUMER PROTECTION

6.1. This agreement, and the right to make complaints and seek appeals of decisions and actions under various processes, does not affect the rights of the student to take action under the Australian Consumer Law if the Australian Consumer Law applies.

6.2. Students will be advised of any changes to these Terms and Conditions that may result from a directive of the governing body of MIT or Murdoch University, or from a change in government legislation or regulation. Any dispute, claim or other matter arising will be subject to the laws of Western Australia.

6.3. Students who are dissatisfied with a decision made by MIT may submit a complaint to MIT in accordance with MIT's Complaints and Appeals Policy (available at www.murdochinstitute.wa.edu.au/policies/). If a student is dissatisfied with the outcome of a complaint and subsequent appeal, they may also submit an application for review of MIT's decision or action to the Overseas Student Ombudsman (if they are an international student) or to a State/Territory fair trading or consumer protection agency.

7. DECLARATION

Upon submitting an application to MIT, and subsequently undertaking any study at MIT, the student (or their authorised representative on the student's behalf – if the student is under 18 years of age):

7.1. Declares that the information provided in their application form is true and complete in every detail.

7.2. Understands that giving false or incomplete information may lead to the refusal of their application or cancellation of their enrolment.

7.3. Has read and understood the published information in the MIT course information brochure and on the MIT (and Murdoch University) website and has sufficient information about MIT to enrol.

7.4. Authorises MIT to retain their photo image for identification purposes and consents to the use of any photographs or video footage taken of the student for promotional or marketing purposes, without further consent or notification.

7.5. Authorises MIT to provide Murdoch University, or any other educational institutions to which the student is seeking admission, any required relevant official records and other personal information relevant to their application or studies. The student also gives MIT permission to obtain official records from any educational institution the student has attended and from Murdoch University once their studies at MIT have finished.

7.6. For international students, the student understands that MIT will collect information during their enrolment in order to meet its obligations under the ESOS Act and the National Code and to ensure the student complies with the conditions of their visa and the student's obligations under Australian immigration laws. The authority to collect information is contained in the ESOS Act, ESOS Regulations and the National Code. The international student authorises MIT to provide information including personal and contact details, course enrolment details, and the circumstances of any suspected breach of their student visa conditions to the Australian Government, the Tuition Protection Service (if relevant) and any other designated authorities. The student also understands that this information can be disclosed without their consent where MIT is authorised to or required to by law.

7.7. Understands and consents to the collection of personal information in accordance with the MIT Privacy Policy (available at www.murdochinstitute.wa.edu.au/policies/).

7.8. Accepts liability for payment of all relevant fees identified in these Terms and Conditions, the MIT course information brochure and on the MIT (or Murdoch University) website. The student also understands the circumstances in which refunds will not be applicable as set out in these Terms and Conditions, including the MIT Refund Policy, and that fees may increase with written notification from MIT during the course. For international students, the student has also read the information provided in relation to living expenses and they understand that the cost of living in Australia may be higher than in their own country, and the student confirms that they can meet those costs.

7.9. Understands and agrees to abide by all MIT policies and procedures (available at www.murdochinstitute.wa.edu.au/policies/).

7.10. Agrees to notify MIT in writing of their contact details, including their current residential address, mobile number (if any) and email address, and who to contact in emergency situations. The student also agrees to notify MIT in writing of any change in those details within 7 days of the change.
